

Long Island Business NEWS

April 27 – May 3, 2018

LIFOCUS

Ones to Watch East End

ANNERIS BLAIR

DEBRA CASTRO

Anneris Blair

Owner
Montauk Wine Co.

Anneris Blair launched Montauk Wine Co. in 2017 and this year unveiled two wines – Montauk Summer Rosé and Montauk Great White – which were harvested, blended and bottled by Premium Wine Group in Mattituck. Blair is new to winemaking. Born in the Dominican Republic, she moved to the United States more than 25 years ago and has worked primarily in fashion retail, holding positions in Westchester and Manhattan as well as the Hamptons. She is working with consultants Mike Carolan and Mark Blair on the new venture.

NEAL FEINBERG

DAVID LOEWENBERG

Debra Castro

Senior Branch Manager
Suffolk Federal

Suffolk Federal recently promoted Debra Castro to serve as senior branch manager of its Riverhead and Eastport branches. In her new role, Castro is responsible for developing new business relationships in conjunction with meeting credit union goals of increased membership and loan and deposit growth. She manages all branch operations, performs regular analysis of production and sales data, and participates in local community affairs. Castro joined Suffolk Federal in 2010 and has led the Islandia, Commack, Riverhead and Eastport branches since her promotion to branch manager in 2014.

STACY PODLASEK

VICTORIA VAN VLAANDEREN

Neal Feinberg

Owner
27 Tennis

Neal Feinberg recently opened 27 Tennis, a private tennis club in Amagansett at the site of the former Napeague Tennis Club. A U.S. Professional Tennis Association-certified pro, Feinberg was the head pro and club manager of Yorkville Tennis Club in Manhattan from 2009 until recently. He currently coaches recreational players of all levels as well as ranked U.S. Tennis Association tournament-level players. Feinberg previously coached high school tennis teams. His new facility features four Har-Tru courts and one AstroTurf court, as well as two basketball courts, a clubhouse and pro shop.

David Loewenberg

Co-Owner
The Beacon, The Bell & Anchor and Fresno Restaurant

David Loewenberg co-owns three East End restaurants: The Bell & Anchor and The Beacon in Sag Harbor and Fresno Restaurant in East Hampton. A Manhattan native, Loewenberg previously worked in New York City, serving as general manager for Tatou, manager of Barocco and assistant manager of Periyali. Before opening his own restaurants, he held positions at popular Hamptons eateries Nick & Toni's, The Honest Diner and 95 School Street. An advocate of local farms and vineyards, Loewenberg focuses on local products at each of his restaurants.

Stacy Podlasek

Medical Surgical Nurse Manager
Eastern Long Island Hospital

Stacy Podlasek joined the nursing team at Eastern Long Island Hospital in Greenport last year, bringing with her 19 years of nursing experience. In her role as medical surgical nurse manager, Podlasek is responsible for coordinating all aspects of nursing care on the 32-bed medical surgical unit and the five-bed intensive care unit. In her most recent position, Podlasek was a stroke performance improvement coordinator at John T. Mather Memorial Hospital in Port Jefferson. She previously held nursing positions at Peconic Bay Medical Center, Stony Brook University Medical Center and Southampton Hospital.

Victoria Van Vlaanderen

Licensed Real Estate Salesperson
Town & Country Real Estate

Victoria Van Vlaanderen, who has been listing, selling and renting homes in the Hamptons since beginning her real estate career in 1997, recently rejoined Town & Country Real Estate in East Hampton. The licensed real estate salesperson specializes in the high-end luxury market. Prior to launching her real estate career, Van Vlaanderen was in the auction business, working for Sotheby's in London, Doyle New York, and Leslie Hindman Auctioneers in Chicago. She holds a master's degree in fine and decorative arts from the Victoria and Albert Museum in London.

■ BSTARZEE@LJBN.COM